(header) Born in the Heart of Portland.

Cathedral embodies the independent and grassroots spirit of the St. John's neighborhood in Portland. We specialize in high-quality genetics and flowers cultivated from the most sought-after and renowned strains, many of which we breed ourselves. Like the St. Johns Bridge, Cathedral symbolizes Portland and commemorates the city's rugged industrial history.

About page:

When it comes to our garden, it all started as a medical grow (pistil point) in the office area where we work. It has since become a 200-light award-winning (under previous ownership) garden featured in HIGH TIMES (RIP City mega grow).

Our Partnerships & Processes page:

Partnerships:

Our commitment to excellence extends to our partnerships. We have strategically aligned with Cutting Edge Solutions to meet our nutrient needs. Their products not only meet our high standards but also come with the added benefit of free consulting services, enhancing our cultivation practices and ensuring our continued success.

Our process:

Our award-winning genetics are not just a result of luck but of our meticulous in-house propagation. We use tissue culture to ensure the health, vigor, and virus-free nature of our genetics. As a small team, we take a hands-on approach to every aspect of the process, from mixing and pruning to harvesting and trimming. This results in a truly artisanal product from beginning to end.

We grow strains testing as high as 39% (GMO) and multiple strains with over 5% terpenes. We currently have over 32 genetics in rotation. We grow clones in rockwool and grow in pure coco.

We hunt down our own phenos from seed (on certain strains) to ensure our strains are high-quality and unique from others. This allows us to work with high-end breeders and access fantastic genetics before other people have access from nurseries years later.

Our team is driven by a shared passion to deliver only the finest products. This dedication is a testament to the hard work we invest and our love for our country, city, and neighborhood. This commitment to excellence positions us for continued growth in the cannabis industry.
